

Cricket Report 2013

The glorious spell of summer weather was just starting when we held the LWC T20 tournament at the end of June. This event features the LWC 1st XI against a Sternian side to battle it out for the Sternian Cricket Shield. This year, 2012 1st XI dynamo Robbie Heywood (2012 Sutton) was playing for us. He had organised a great team with lots of experience and it showed. The Sternians retained the trophy and won the overall tournament after beating The Leopards, a touring side from South Africa.
