

Memorandum of Understanding

Sternians' Association and LWC Development Office

The Sternians' Association in furtherance of its aims and objectives to:

- (a) assist in the promotion of education (in its widest sense) at Lord Wandsworth College by all means within the power of the Association
- (b) keep all former pupils of Lord Wandsworth College and former pupils of Lord Wandsworth Girls' School (Gosden House) in touch with each other and thus to promote a sympathetic, friendly and mutually helpful organisation
- (c) keep all former pupils of the above Schools in touch with Lord Wandsworth College and, by promoting a friendly relationship with the staff, ensure a lasting interest in the progress of Lord Wandsworth College and its ideals is agreed that it has a role and interest to play in the success of the Lord Wandsworth College Development Office.

The LWC Development Office acknowledges this role and interest and is agreed that there are matters of common interest that both agree on. The Association and the Development Office therefore agree to the following:

- (a) the Sternians' Association and the Development Office will both maintain the unified database, within the constraints of the Data Protection Act, of past pupils, parents and staff
- (b) information on past pupils, parents and staff will be shared, unless that pupil, parent or member of staff indicates that his or her information is restricted to the one party only
- (c) the Sternians' Trust Fund will remain independent of this understanding
- (d) not less than 2 joint newsletters a year shall be produced
- (e) responsibility for publishing The Sternian Magazine will remain with the Sternians' Association
- (f) the aim of providing the Sternian Magazine to all past pupils, staff and friends of Lord Wandsworth College and Lord Wandsworth Girls' School (Gosden House)
- (g) the Sternians' Association and the LWC Development Office shall each provide support at events which require their attendance or resources to further the aims of the College, the Foundation or the Association
- (h) the parties will, at all times, keep the other informed of initiatives that affect our common interests
