

Many former members of Junior House will be sad to hear that Mary Matson, who with her husband John, ran the house for many happy years, has recently died. She had been living in Farnham and she passed away peacefully. Her son, Colin, was with her.

